

PRESS RELEASE

“Planning a Rehab Project”

Are you planning a rehab project at your home? Kerry Adams of the Cleveland Restoration Society will be presenting a program on rehab projects on older homes. This program will teach you how to plan for the project, how to choose the right contractor for the job, and what to look for when reviewing bids. This presentation is a FREE program open to the public and will be held at the Elyria Police Department conference room on Thursday, April 22, 2010 at 7:00 p.m.

This workshop is sponsored by Elyria Landmarks Commission, the Lorain County Preservation Network and the Lorain County Historical Society.
