A police officer's badge proudly worn...
A hero and a friend proudly sworn...
His light in the world, now stolen away...
Deep felt sorrow will go on from that day...
All who knew him, take a moment to pray...
For his family and friends who must find a way,
To move past the horror, the loss, and the fears,
Push past the pain and stinging tears...
Remember the husband, the father, and son..
Remember that smile he gave everyone
A comrade, protector, true brother in blue,
Honorable, loving, strong and true,
Now guarding the Heavens, EPD 177
